Mark "Chef Marco" Sciortino

In 1988, Mark Sciortino "Chef Marco" opened Marco's Italian Restaurant on Niagara Street in Buffalo, NY, following his dream of creating and serving traditional, family-favorite Italian dishes. Ten years later, Chef Marco opened another location that quickly became another Buffalo favorite: Marco's Italian Deli. Located on Hertel Ave in Buffalo's Little Italy, Marco's Italian Deli is "Home of the Original SANGWICH!" a term used by many Italian communities in place of "sandwich".

Then in 2008, Sorrento® hired Chef Marco to be their spokesperson. Chef Marco has been promoting Sorrento®, Precious®, and now Galbani® cheeses for over 12 years. He continues to create new recipes and performs cooking demonstrations across the U.S., as host of La Cucina Galbani® Cooking Stage, at the largest Italian Festivals across the nation. Chef Marco has appeared on numerous media networks and cooking shows across the country as well. He continues to run his restaurants and currently resides in Buffalo, NY with his wife Victoria and their beautiful twin girls Maria and Gabriella.

Please enjoy a few of our favorite Chef Marco recipes and thank you Chef Marco for your dedication and passion for our Galbani cheeses.

FRESH MOZZARELLA CHEESE

Our all-natural, "fior di latte" Galbani Fresh Mozzarella makes a star out of magnificent cow's milk. It has a subtle, clean, milky flavor and a classically soft, stretchy texture. It is a softer cheese with a higher moisture content that is available in several convenient sizes including pearls, ciliegine, bocconcini, ovolini, medallions, and pre-sliced logs. Fresh Mozzarella cheese is great to use in salads and on pizzas.

The sausage and bread crumbs add the “stuffing” flavor like in our delicious stuffed hot pepper recipe found on our website.*

Spinach Ricotta Gnocchi

32 oz. Galbani® Ricotta Cheese
1/4 cup Galbani® Mozzarella Cheese,
hand shredded
1/2 cup Galbani® Grated Parmesan Cheese
2 eggs
1 cup frozen chopped spinach, thawed
and drained
3 1/2 cups all-purpose flour - set aside 1/4 cup
to coat surface when rolling out the gnocchi
1 1/2 oz. olive oil
1 tsp. kosher salt
1/2 tsp. garlic powder
1/2 tsp. white pepper
1 jar of tomato sauce
1/4 cup fresh basil, chopped

1. Mix ricotta, egg, flour, olive oil, 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese, garlic powder, pepper and salt in a bowl. Knead until mixed, add spinach, and continue to knead until full blended.
2. Remove dough and shape into a ball on a floured surface. Cut into sections. Roll out dough into ropes, about 1/2" thick. Cut each strip into 1" pieces. Using a gnocchi board or fork, roll each piece to make the ridges.
3. Refrigerate until ready to cook or freeze for later use.
4. Cook gnocchi in boiling water for about 2 minutes, remove and drain. In a saucepan heat tomato sauce, stir in basil.
5. Spoon ricotta gnocchi into pasta bowls and top with sauce. Finish with shredded mozzarella and grated Parmesan.

HOMEMADE PASTA

Making pasta from scratch doesn't need to be intimidating and gnocchi is the perfect "beginners" pasta. Just roll out the dough, cut, and make the ridges with a fork. You can also make homemade pasta dough using just flour, egg, olive oil, and salt. There are many different shapes and sizes you can experiment with, from long and wide pappardelle noodles, to fun shapes like cavatelli that look like miniature hot dog buns and farfalle that look like little bow ties.

1 quart of vegetable oil

1. Cut the dough ball into 14 equal size pieces and roll each into a ball.
2. Set aside on a floured sheet tray for 30 minutes so the dough can rise.
3. In a medium-sized pot, add vegetable oil and heat slowly to approximately 350 degrees F.
4. Add dough balls to the oil using a slotted spoon, roll the balls around in the oil until they turn golden brown. Cook time approximately 3-4 minutes each side.
5. Remove from oil and place on a paper towel on a plate.

THE SWEETER SIDE OF CHEESE

*Galbani Ricotta is a great compliment to decadent-tasting desserts. There are many ways to sweeten ricotta cheese. Simply drizzle honey on top to make a sweet dip for your fresh berries. Or add powdered sugar to make a different kind of cannoli like our fun ice cream cone cannolis, frozen cannoli pops, or delicious cannoli dip.
